Life 101 Courses

by EduVita Consults

Many times we have questions that we are afraid to ask for fear that someone may ridicule us or we think we understand a particular process only to find out we didn't quite get the concept. Through EduVita Consults' Life 101 Courses, individuals can become educated on various topics that will assist them in better handling life's tasks. Throughout the courses we will offer finance management seminars, investment courses, communication skills, resume writing, interview preparations and much more. These courses are skills that are not taught in traditional school settings but are necessary in our society. Please check out the website at www.eduvitaconsultsllc.org to see the upcoming events and book your spot today. It will be well worth it. EduVita Consults is “Where Life + Skills = Knowledge”.
